

100 Adjective Examples in Sentences

- I feel happy today.
- It is cold outside this morning.
- She lives in a big house near the park.
- My room is small, but comfortable.
- This bag feels heavy to carry.
- The test was easy for most students.
- I watched an interesting film last night.
- She chose a red dress for the party.
- My street looks clean after the rain.
- That food smells good.
- He is a kind person.
- This box is light, not heavy.
- Today has been a long day for me.
- She keeps her hair short.
- It feels hot in this room.
- We had a rainy evening yesterday.
- I bought a new phone this week.
- That building looks very old.
- Everyone found the story funny.
- I feel tired after work.
- Many students think the exam was difficult.
- He gave a quick reply.
- The room feels bright and fresh.
- It became dark very early.
- She has a beautiful voice.
- This car is really fast.

100 Adjective Examples in Sentences

- The road gets busy in the evening.
- The park stays quiet in the morning.
- He looked sad after hearing the news.
- That was a wise decision.
- This water feels cold.
- I found a cheap bag online.
- That watch looks expensive.
- He is strong enough to lift it.
- My glass is empty now.
- The shop is still open.
- Sorry, the door is closed.
- She felt nervous before speaking.
- This cake tastes sweet.
- The soup is a bit salty.
- He speaks in a loud voice.
- She talked in a soft tone.
- The baby looks sleepy.
- This chair feels comfortable.
- That app is very useful.
- The problem seems simple.
- His explanation was clear.
- Many students found the class boring.
- The match was exciting to watch.
- She always wears clean clothes.

100 Adjective Examples in Sentences

- Our dog is very friendly.
- He felt proud of his success.
- This lesson is helpful for beginners.
- Your answer is correct.
- That number is wrong.
- The room feels warm now.
- The floor looks wet.
- My bag is full already.
- The street feels empty at night.
- He spoke in a polite way.
- The boy was brave during the test.
- She made a careful plan.
- This task is hard for me.
- These flowers smell fresh.
- The fruit looks ripe.
- Children are naturally curious.
- Her answer was surprising.
- The music sounds loud here.
- This lesson is important for exams.
- He speaks with a strong accent.
- That mountain looks high from here.
- The river seems deep.
- Prices are low today.
- The sky looks blue and clear.

100 Adjective Examples in Sentences

- These shoes feel comfortable.
- My teacher is strict, but fair.
- He is known as an honest man.
- My cat feels lazy today.
- The child stays active all day.
- Your plan sounds good.
- She gave a smart answer.
- This road is very narrow.
- I bought a brown bag.
- Their house looks modern.
- This book is useful for practice.
- My phone screen is broken.
- The meeting was short.
- I feel hungry now.
- His exam result was excellent.
- The weather feels pleasant today.
- This job seems easy.
- My room looks messy.
- She stays quiet in class.
- That question is simple.
- The food tastes delicious.
- The movie felt long.
- This pillow feels soft.
- He looks happy today.

