

100 Figurative Language Examples

He is as brave as a lion during difficult situations.

She is as busy as a bee preparing for the exam.

The box felt as light as a feather in my hands.

His hands were as cold as ice in the winter morning.

The mountain was as white as snow after the storm.

The child stayed as quiet as a mouse in the classroom.

The car moved as fast as lightning on the highway.

The tower stood as tall as a tree in the field.

The turtle walked as slow as a snail on the road.

The worker was as strong as an ox.

Her voice is music to my ears.

Time is money, so use it wisely.

vocabish.com

Life is a journey full of lessons.

The classroom was a zoo during the break.

The world is a stage, and everyone plays a role.

His angry words were daggers to my heart.

She has a heart of gold.

Knowledge is power in modern society.

The crowded market was a jungle of people.

Her soft voice is music in the quiet room.

The wind whispered through the trees.

The bright sun smiled down on the village.

The flowers danced in the gentle breeze.

The stars winked in the dark sky.

The river sang as it flowed over rocks.

The moon watched over the quiet night.

The leaves waved goodbye in autumn.

vocabish.com The alarm clock screamed at 6 a.m.

The thunder roared loudly across the sky.

The rain knocked on the window all night.

I was so hungry I could eat a horse.

This suitcase weighs a ton.

100 Figurative Language Examples

I have waited forever for the bus.

I have told you a million times to clean your room.

That joke killed me with laughter.

The classroom was freezing this morning.

I ran faster than the wind to catch the train.

The queue was a mile long.

vocabish.com

She cried a river after hearing the sad news.

My phone battery dies every second.

We played a game to break the ice at the meeting.

She hit the nail on the head with her answer.

The test was a piece of cake for him.

I stayed home because I felt under the weather.

He accidentally spilled the beans about the surprise party.

That luxury car costs an arm and a leg.

The soldier had to bite the bullet and continue.

She burned the midnight oil to finish her project.

We go to the beach once in a blue moon.

He let the cat out of the bag about the secret.

The teacher's explanation was crystal clear.

Her smile was as bright as the sun.

The baby's skin was as soft as cotton.

The lake was as calm as glass in the morning.

The metal felt as hard as rock.

His mind is a powerful machine.

The internet is a highway of information.

vocabish.com Books are windows to the world.

Hope is a light in difficult times.

Fear is a shadow that follows doubt.

The storm attacked the village during the night.

The fire swallowed the dry wood quickly.

The road welcomed travelers into the town.

The darkness covered the valley like a blanket.

100 Figurative Language Examples

The wind chased the clouds across the sky.

The news hit me like a storm.

My backpack is a mountain on my shoulders.

I was drowning in homework last night.

The crowd roared like thunder in the stadium.

I nearly died laughing at the comedy show.

The teacher told us to call it a day.

He tried to cut corners on the project.

She got cold feet before the interview.

This plan will kill two birds with one stone.

He likes to pull my leg for fun.

Now the ball is in your court. vocabish.com

She added fuel to the fire during the argument.

The mistake turned out to be a blessing in disguise.

He always beats around the bush instead of answering.

They decided to jump the gun and start early.

His patience is thinner than paper.

The desert sun burned like fire.

The rumor spread like wildfire.

vocabish.com Her eyes sparkled like stars.

The night wrapped the city in darkness.

The opportunity opened a new door for him.

The problem was a heavy burden on her mind.

His anger was a raging storm.

Her words built a bridge between the two groups.

The silence spoke louder than words.

The idea planted a seed of hope.

His dream took flight after graduation.

The news spread like wind across the town.

The challenge tested his strength like fire tests gold.

The child's laughter filled the room with sunshine.

The plan collapsed like a house of cards.